Agworld keeps you compliant with new Statewide Notification regulations

Available online or on the go via Agworld's mobile apps

Through Agworld's CalAg NOI submission workflows your business is compliant with recent updates to Statewide Notifications. By electronically submitting your NOIs through Agworld, documentation is made available to CalAgPermits.

When submitting NOIs from a recommendation, you can now set individual target application windows for each block or field; supporting more granular and precise NOI submissions allowing you to tailor to county specific, weekend and/or fumigant restricted product specifics.
