INVEST WHERE IT MATTERS

When you choose CAPCA for event participation, you're investing in more than a registration. You're supporting the only non-profit member association dedicated to advocating for California's license holders, applicator professionals, and the future of pest management.

We know other CE options are out there, some hosted by for-profit companies. But when you attend non-CAPCA-sponsored events, your dollars stop at the door. With CAPCA, your support impacts advocacy, education, and elevating the profession you and your predecessors have built through your hard work and dedication.

Your professional investment matters. Make it count with CAPCA!
